

JUNE 2021
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Latin American Photography Virtual Exhibition

+Q Instantes (More than moments)
from June 9th until Agosto 8th, 2021

Julio César García - Por el Piso III, 2020

ArtelatAm - an international arts organization that aims to promote Latin American visual artists and creators - is proud to present the Virtual Exhibition of Latin American Photography entitled “+Q Instantes” (More than moments), which will take place between June 9th and August 8th, 2021

The images of 18 Latin American photographers will be exhibited in the ArteLatAm Virtual Gallery: artelatam.org/masqueinstantes, presenting a vision of contents that transmit complete and direct meanings; either through light management, a chromatic range or even the very characteristic grain of traditional photography.

“The art curators of this exhibition seeks to promote Latin American Photography with a vision of avant-garde concepts, and images that generate a feeling, a memory, a moment, and more than that...”

Among the selected Latin American photographers are: Gabriela Andrade, Mario José Ángeles, Gabriel Eisenband, El Pedro Felipe, Julio César García, Rosemary Golcher, Laura Hernández, Yinna Higuera, Angelo Miramonti, María Emilia Moncayo, Cesar Payamps, Francisco Paz y Miño, Krishna Elios Rodríguez, Omar Andrés Rueda, Gilliam de la Torre, Santiago Trujillo and Antonio Mora (Spain).

The opening of this art exhibition will take place next June 9th at 7PM (Eastern US Time) via Facebook Live on the ArteLatAm account: facebook.com/artelatamny

As a preamble to this exhibition, last May 20th ArteLatAm presented a virtual talk entitled "Dialogues between the Artist and Photography" with the participation of the photographers Antonio Mora and Gabriel Eisenband and the art curator of this exhibitions Ana María Trujillo and Carlos Torres Machado.

You can check the art talk in this link: youtu.be/MbEKhMQec6c

During the two months that the exhibition lasts, each of the artists/ photographers will be interviewed, to keep up to date with the dates of these talks, we ask the public to follow the ArteLatAm social media channels.
